GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS BASKERVILLE TO DISTRICT COURT BENCH

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley today appointed Randolph Baskerville to the vacant seat on the District Court bench in Judicial District 9B. The district is comprised of part of Vance and Warren counties.

“For more than 20 years, Randolph Baskerville has served the citizens of Judicial District 9B as both an assistant district attorney and private practitioner,” Easley said. “His wealth of knowledge and experience will make him an excellent addition to the bench.”

Baskerville served as an assistant district attorney from 1979 to 1985. Since 1985, he has been a private practitioner concentrating in the areas of criminal defense, estates and personal injury. He is a former member of the local board of directors of Bank of America and has worked extensively in the community through Habitat for Humanity and Crime Stoppers.

Baskerville received his undergraduate degree from Fayetteville State University in 1971 and his law degree from N.C. Central University School of Law in 1976.
